

Kkhasravi O.Z.,
Ph.D. student,
Department of administrative and economic law,
Economy-law faculty,
Odesa National University named after I. I. Mechnikov

DEVELOPMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION

This article analyzes the emergence and development of the science of administrative law in modern Russia.

Special attention is paid to the analysis of scientific thought on the development of the science of administrative law. The main works in the study area.

The main attention is paid to the classification stages of formation and development of administrative law in the territory of modern Russia.

The stud proposed next classification of the main periods of the development of science of Administrative Law of the Russian Federation:

1. The primitive period (up to the prince);

2. Princely period (period of Kievan Rus’);

3. Tsarist period (mid- sixteenth century – 1917);

4. The Soviet period (1917 – the end of the 80s of the twentieth century);

5. The modern period (early 90s – at today).

It is concluded that the science of administrative law – is the theoretical position and methodological basis to ensure the process of studying, researching, analyzing and developing proposals, recommendations and concepts on the legal regulation of relations in the field of organization and functioning of public administration.

Lysenko O.M.,
Ph.D. student,
Department of administrative and customs law,
Academy of Customs Service of Ukraine,
Head of Customs processing brunch,
Chernihiv Customs Ministry of income

METHODOLOGY OF DETECTION AND SUPPRESSION OF VIOLATIONS OF CUSTOMS LEGISLATION

The article highlights the extremely actual problem of administrative-legal support of law-enforcement activity of authorities of income and charges by the way of setting and review of issues of some methodological aspects of this sphere of law-enforcement at the stage of detection and stopping of violations of customs legislation.

The questions about the formation of a unified, cohesive, integrated and wick based on advanced norms of domestic and international law methodological system of the challenges of the law-enforcement direction with the prospect of its further perfection of normative-legal framework and practical application, were analysed.

The state of scientific researches of this problem, during which revealed the insufficiency of theoretical and methodological developments of the system, structure due to the application by the income and charges of norms of administrative-legal regulation, aimed at the achievement of the goals and tasks of law-enforcement activity in the sphere of customs legislation, was reviewed.

The essence and main stages of work of authorities of income and charges to detect and prevent violations of the customs legislation, which allocated a complex of general and special methods for the implementation of the specified activities, were revealed. In particular, the general methods, the main goal of which is to create the preconditions for the introduction of an efficient mechanism of counteraction to customs misconduct, including political, legal, economic, historical, organizational, control, information and advocacy.

Special methods that prove or disprove and concretize the efficiency common methods and wick are applied by the authorities of income and charges in practice, classified by individual criteria (depending on the steps of their application, the subjects of the offence, the object of infringement violation of customs regulations, the subject of authority, etc) and distributed separately on organizational, analytical, search (operational) and procedural.

Malchenko Yu.I.,

Ph.D. student,

*Department of administrative law and administrative process,
Odesa State University of Internal Affairs*

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION STATE SERVICE OF UKRAINE ON DRUG CONTROL

According to the strategy of drug policy until 2020, international cooperation in the field of drug trafficking is an important part of foreign policy interests.

The article deals with the problem of international cooperation of the State Service of Ukraine on drug control, including the legal nature of international and national legal instruments functioning services, and legal public health, national security, and a number of other issues.

In accordance with the international treaties ratified by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine one of the basic tasks of the State Service of Ukraine on drug control